

COME SHOOT THE BUNKER!

WHEN: Saturday, August 15, 2020 starting at 10:00 a.m.

WHERE: The Missoula Trap & Skeet Club

WHY: International Trap is the shooting discipline practiced in many other countries of the world and is the trap shooting sport presented in the Summer Olympics every four years. Accordingly, International Trap is the shooting sport forming basis of world championship trap shooting around the globe. The Missoula Trap & Skeet Club houses one of the few International Trap ranges in the Pacific Northwest. One of our most renowned members, Jim Clawson, successfully shot International Trap in many competitions around the world and, with the help of his family and friends, brought Olympic Trap shooting to Missoula with the construction of a fifteen trap “bunker” at the Missoula Trap & Skeet Club. Many of our Members have shown an interest in learning to shoot International Trap, so we’re making an effort to showcase the sport with an instructional clinic presented by one of our newest Members!

WHO: Lesley Goddard-Wrench recently moved to the Bitterroot Valley she and her husband, Chris Wrench have joined our membership. Leslie was a member of the Great Britain Shooting Team for 15 consecutive years, shooting in three different disciplines: Olympic Trap, Double Trap and Universal Trench (5 Trap). During her tenure on the British team, Leslie won many individual and team medals including: European Champion, ISSF World Cup, British, English, United Kingdom and Commonwealth Championships. She won a Quota Place for the British team in the Beijing, China Olympic Games. In 2009, Lesley retired from International Trap competition after winning the English, British, and World UT Championships.

Lesley started coaching International Trap disciplines in 1995 and for 10 years was the coach and coordinator for the British junior shooting team. Among her students were shooters who went on to represent Great Britain in many world competitions. In 2010, Lesley was the Kuwait National Olympic Trap coach with her students achieving success in World Championships and London Olympics Quota Placements. In 2016, Lesley published “Shooting Secrets – What Winners Know and Coaches Don’t Tell You” (Outskirts Press, 2016).

FORMAT: Come as you are! Cost to Members will be the ordinary $6.00 per 25 bird shooting fees. Bring your own shotguns and ammunition (preferably O/U doubles for safety considerations unique to International Trap shooting). We’ll cover the basics rules and procedures of International Trap and receive Lesley’s tips and instruction as we go! It should be a fun and educational shooting experience!

CONTACT: Wayne Capp at 531-2506. So that we can plan for the best possible shooting experience, please let Wayne know if you plan to attend or if you have any questions.
